

Office of Public Printer,

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6, 1884.

A. L. Snowden, Esq.,

Superintendent U. S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I send you to-day, by Adams Express, one package of waste gold-leaf, weighing  $7\frac{1}{2}$  pounds, including rubbers, wrappers, &c. Please cause this waste gold to be melted <sup>and</sup> send the proceeds to this Office.

Very Respectfully,

Charles Taylor

Chief Clerk.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 133

Office of Public Printer,
Washington, D.C.,
December 6, 1884

A.L. Snowden, Esq.
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I send you to-day, by Adams Express, one package of waste gold-leaf, weighing 7 ½ pounds, including rubbers, wrappers, &c. Please cause this waste gold to be smelted and send the proceeds to this Office.

Very Respectfully,
Cade S. Tarplor
Chief Clerk